SAISFACTION GUARANTEED OR YOUR MONEY REFUNDED

THE JOYNERS: MERRILL, NELLIE, SHIRLEY MAE AND TOM

DUANE, GERTRUDE, HARLAN, GLORIA AND HENRY OPDAHL

MEET THE BOSSES OF SEARS-ROEBUCK

Probably you never heard of the Oplahs and the Jaysons. It would be strange indeed if you did, for they're not the kind of folks who make newspaper headlines or win contests. But they're people worth knowing, all the same. Because they are what all of us want to be—good, solid, dependable Americans.

These folks and 10 million other families like them are customers of Sears and, what is more important, friends as well. What they talk about and believe in, what rises them or brings a chuckle are vitally important to us. For they are the real bosses of ours, here at Sears-Roebuck.

We wanted you to meet them—to sit on the side porch and hear them tell how Sears help them get more out of living. So we went to cities and villages and along the less-traveled sideroads that line America's fruitful farmlands, and took the pictures you see on the pages following.

Wherever we went we heard why folks are buying more from Sears-Mail Order today than they ever did before. "We buy for less," they said, "and always get quality we can depend on. We get such a wide choice of styles, designs and prices. We can hold a family council on our purchases. And we save so much time because we can buy from our Sears catalog at home and things are delivered right to the mailbox."

They like Sears catalog for other reasons, too. Because they can find what they want, completely and accurately presented. Because Sears merchandise is pictured as it will look in their hands, in their homes, at the beach, on the farm. And because we give them straightforward, factual reading matter—stripped of technical terms and sales talk.

So your new Sears catalog again is that kind of book—the kind of practical catalog you and the Oplahs and Jaysons and 10 million other American families told us you want.

We guarantee to save you money. We guarantee to deliver all merchandise safely. We guarantee to satisfy you. We guarantee that every article in this catalog is honestly described and that what we guarantee that any article purchased from us will give you the service you have a right to expect. If for any reason whatever you are not satisfied with any article purchased from us, we want you to return it to us at our expense. We will then exchange it for exactly what you want or refund your money, including any transportation charges you have paid.

Sears Easy Payments apply to everything we sell. See the Inside Back Cover . . . Sears exclusive "Where-else?" feature tells you where to buy . . . For complete index and information, turn to How to Order, Index "Where-else?"

Still making sparks fly, the old Sears forge is used by Mr. Opdahls to maintain much heavy on the farm

One look at Henry tells you that it won't be long until his place has Sears electric fencing, too

Went on the table is a tradition and their cold storage locker in Albert Lea always holds a plenty

Business man that he is, Henry Opdahls knows that profit can be made or lost in farm management as in plowing, planting, harvesting. So continuous farm records are kept and Sears catalog comes out whenever they make a purchase for the family or the farm are old friends of Sears because they know what an acre ought to yield and a dollar ought to buy

If you strike out from Albert Lea and go sixteen miles southwest through Coconino, you'll find the comfortable farm buildings of Henry and Gertrude Opdahls, surrounded by 440 acres of Freeborn County soil that's rich and black. Seventy-seven years ago Henry's father came here from Norway and broke the land walking barefoot behind a plow and team. Henry, his eleventh child, was born on the place and Gertrude but a few miles up the road. So their family roots run deep in the soil and you can understand their reverence for this country that is both life and livelihood.

Henry Opdahls is a progressive farmer and a sound business man. Alert to the changing scene in agriculture, he works with the State University. Periodically their specialists review his program and practices, make suggestions their experience has shown will increase Opdahls farm earnings. Once a year they audit the farm record book and this statement of his operation serves Mr. Opdahls as a guide for the year ahead.

The same business-like approach carries on into family purchasing, as well. They buy from Sears catalog not because Sears accounts to almost a tradition in the Opdahls family, but because month-in and month-out the Sears catalog continues to give "better quality for the money than anybody else." When they make out an order, the needs of the whole family are considered—right down to the hired men. And almost every order includes what thrifty Mrs. Opdahls calls "postage saved"—Sears like tooth paste and shaving cream that alone save the entire postage.

How long have they bought from Sears? Henry answered our question with an invitation. "Come on back to the implement shed," he said. "I want to show you something." There, framed in the rays of a setting Minnesota sun, stood the old forge and anvil they bought from Sears-Roebuck Mail Order twenty-four years ago—still giving service, still living up to Sears famous guarantee.

Swing low sweet chariot! Gloria and Duane sing in the glee club, play cornets in the school band

The 11-room Opdahls farmhouse sits back from the road, shielded by oaks, surrounded by low cedar, ash and elm trees. When winter comes with its biting Minnesota cold, seven windows go up, the north side is banked, and the furnace draft thrown wide open

OPDAHLS MAKE THE MOST OF REA

November 10, 1936 was a red-letter day in the Opdahls household. For on that date the high line came down the road past the Opdahls farm and life became richer and fuller than it had been before. First on their list of "wants," of course, was a centrifugal pump for running water. Then came the electric range. And as months went by, other conveniences were added: vacuum cleaner, toaster, iron, radio and clock.

But being practical folks, it's not convenience but rather the labor and time they save with the REA that appeals to them most. Mrs. Opdahls says her electric washing machine does the work in less than half the time it used to take. The electric cream separator eliminates the drudgery of hard operation. And the Sears motor that operates the flanging mill and feed grinder frees hands for other chores.

The Opdahls electric bill is no problem. "Some day soon, I hope we'll be paying more," says Mr. Opdahls. And you know that sure as shootin' he has some new Sears equipment in his mind that he can pay for on Sears Easy Terms—by the month, a little at a time.

Best career, thinks Duane Opdahls, is flying—and mail cracker, with three cousins already in the air

Modern from still to refrigerator, Mrs. Opdahls's kitchen is one that many city housewives might envy

But battered popcorn—pinosa some! Opdahls children have the time of their lives when they visit Grandma Lunden's just over the state line in Forest City, Minn., on Sunday afternoons. Made in the kitchen, served in a dishpan, popcorn's a regular week-end event

are a Sears family who found a new way of living out on the edge of town

One night three years ago, Nellie Joyner was sitting on the floor with the Sears catalog open to the nursery section. "Next year," she suddenly announced to Merrill Joyner reading his paper in the easy chair. "I think we ought to build a place of our own in one of those new suburbs out on Raytown Road!"

For a couple who had lived almost all of their lives in Kansas City, the decision was momentous. But there was sound thinking behind it. With a half acre of land, they could raise vegetables. Maybe chickens, too. Nellie could have her flower garden. Merrill could get the exercise an office worker needs. And all the while, payments no larger than rent would be buying a place that someday would be theirs for keeps.

Shirley Mae and Tom, however, were the biggest reasons. They were always changing schools, as the Joyners moved from one rented apartment to another. City yards are small and too often they played in the street. Shirley Mae begged for a bike, but Mother was afraid of the street cars and traffic. Tom wanted a dog, and well—that was out of the question.

So the Joyners bought a lot in Hilltop Gardens, built a house and gave themselves and their children some roots to hang on to in this fast-changing world. They still talk about the money Sears saved them—from hardware on the windows to hard-waxed rug on the kitchen floor. And here at Sears we're pretty proud that we could help them make their dream come true.

"Keep your foot on 'er, Dad," says Tom. Playing croquet on the green grass of their own back yard in the suburbs is the dream of almost every city family. The Joyner family do things together, make their own good times. Every week-end when the sun shines they are working in the garden as outdoors on the lawn as we found them the Sunday we took this picture for the evening

Loose-Wiles Assistant Office Manager, Merrill Jayner goes to work at eight, gets up no earlier than he did in town

Puppy love—and why not? Give a boy a dog he can call his own and pretty soon his little sister has half-interest “Does telephone order service—we couldn’t live out here without it—” Says next-day truck delivery, too!

Tom’s in there pitchin’—but Dad is still champion. Harvesters are a sport city fellows haven’t the space to enjoy

You make more friends in the suburbs, Merrill says. Here he and Nellie greet the Carnetts, also friends of Teas

Four hands make dishwashing short. Nellie Jayner’s special pride is her kitchen and her new Caltopas

Ten years old and small for her age, Shirley Blue looks better, acts better too, since they moved to the suburbs

Picture of a radio bug? A sophomore at Kansas City Manual High, Ernest drives on town with his Dad in the morning

Twenty pounds, please! Far from city traffic, Fifth-grader Shirley Blue takes her Sears Elgon to school Strawberry plants from Sears are a sure sign of Spring! Gardening in 7th season for Merrill Jayner

"My Mother, your Mother runs across the way." All outdoors is a playground for Shirley Mae and her little friends

"It's twice the pleasure to decorate with Sears fabrics than we moved into a home of our own," says Nellie Jayner

Snapping recipes and news in fun at neighborhood sewing meetings twice a month in Hilltop Gardens

"Wish 'em up, Mister!" Tom charges $10 for neighbors' cars, $10 to do Dad's. Earnings buy radio parts from Sears

"Works like a charm", Merrill Jayner says as he sets up his Sears Craftsman power mower on a Saturday afternoon

Signposts of the times, R.F.D. boxes like these are becoming familiar sights in areas surrounding metropolitan cities as Americans move closer to the soil. Third from the right is the Jayner box, like most of the twelve, brought from Sears

Hot water—there's always plenty for shampoo, baths and dinner dishes, as well as many other city conveniences

NEW AND FASTER SERVICE ON WOMEN'S FASHIONS

Effective with this catalog you will get faster service because:

1 We have greatly increased the number of women's ready-to-wear articles carried in your nearest mail order house for immediate, same-day shipment.

2 We are carrying at our Kansas City Mail Order House complete stocks of all women's ready-to-wear articles, in addition to complete stocks at our New York Fashion Headquarters. They will tell you about the better service you get on the dresses, coats, suits and other women's wear items you select. This better, faster handling is made possible by the greatly increasing demand for our women's fashions.

Buy fashions from Sears catalogs for the best styles, for the greatest savings and the quickest service!

THE JOYNER'S CATALOG

has a new meaning these days

A few years back, Merrill couldn't tell a garden tractor from a cultivator. And what Nellie didn't know about the simple task of transplanting rose bushes would take a lot of answering. But things are different now. Like a lot of other city people gone suburbanite, the Joyner's have discovered sections of the catalog they didn't know existed. The Store for Hardware and Farm Equipment and The Store for Building and Modernizing make fascinating, almost nightly reading. As a consequence, they are about as well-informed today on fences and fertilizers, paint and implements as many country folks.

"We've got a new respect for your catalog since we came out here," Mr. Joyner told us. "Of course, we bought clothing from you, equipment for the car, and furniture when we lived in town. But here in the country we need lots of things city folks don't know about. So we use your catalog as a guide. It gives us facts, plainly and quickly. When we finish reading about an article, we know exactly how it works and what it will do."

Clad in cheer blue denim overalls, Nellie Joyner makes a dream come true. For in Hilship Gardens there's room for a flower garden and a chance to see things grow. And you live the kind of outdoor life you just can't find in crowded city places.

Abstract

[illegible][illegible]

Второй вариант — это когда человек не знает, что он болен. В этом случае человек не будет принимать никаких мер по лечению и профилактике. В результате болезнь будет прогрессировать, и человек может стать инвалидом или даже умереть. Поэтому очень важно вовремя обнаружить болезнь и начать лечение.

"I would consider the fact that a man who was not up to the job that position was being assigned a good thing and that it was not under him to show up there on that day of the week."

Below, a new hybrid patterned "wood" is shown and shown in three and two views. The $2 \times 2 \times 2$ is a $2 \times 2 \times 2$ cube with a hole in the center. The hole is a $1 \times 1 \times 1$ cube.

The reason the two teams dramatically jumped ahead was the sluggish 10-foot jumpers that one player threw. As the ball came down into the basket, the other team's player jumped instead. He got the ball and was called for a foul. And that's well-known and never the case in this "banned" version. American is still an interesting American where the answer "to be" is to write every New Yorker who says to some hard-core person -
 "I am American and I want to go down there with my machine, right?"
